LOOSE LEAF CLASS ROOM 100

The Loose Leaf Class study is The Apostle Paul and the Christian Life edited by Scot McKnight and Joseph B. Modica and seeks to reinterpret the apostle Paul and his letters against the backdrop of first-century Judaism. It explores the value of Paul's writings for ordinary Christians living ordinary lives. Leading New Testament scholars offer a response to this question "How does the apostle Paul understand the Christian life?" and others. The book makes a fresh contribution to the Paul conversation and offers important new insights into the orientation of the Christian life.

Vickie & Walter Buenger coordinate the class.

SEEKERS CLASS ROOM 101 (PARLOR)

Seekers encourage open discussion as it "seeks" understanding, knowledge and fellowship while studying together. Fall class studies are DVD-based: (1) Moses – In the Footsteps of the Reluctant Prophet by Adam Hamilton retraces the life of Moses from his modest birth to leading his people out of Egypt. (2) The Prodigal Son by John McArthur highlights a story that stands out because it is a story about each of us and our struggle with sin. (3) Faithful: Christmas through the Eyes of Joseph by Adam Hamilton. Joseph provides us a great example of humbly obeying God even when we don't understand, faithfully moving forward in the strength that God provides. This class is open to all, including all ages, both single and married. Class members share the role of class organization to minimize the responsibilities. This class shares, studies, prays, socializes, and cares for others.

Class coordinator is Cheryl Page.

Our first study is Max Lucado's God's Story... your story. The Lucado study will be followed by an exploration of the Apostle's Creed using Creed: What Christians Believe and Why by Adam Hamilton. All are welcome as we pray, play, learn, work and care for one another. Class members enjoy lively open dialogues and gain from learning and studying together.
